The English Garden

The English Garden is our most popular ceremony site and offers the perfect location for wedding groups of up to 200 people. The English Garden covers just under two acres and is based on formal English design principles. This garden contains three “garden rooms”: The Maze, the Knot Garden, and the Great Lawn. It has been designed so that areas of the garden are in bloom all season long. Our most formal garden, the English Garden contains 1000 feet of hedges, dozens of shrub and rose varieties and hundreds of perennials. Tents from outside vendors are prohibited in this area.

The Oriental Garden

The Oriental Garden is the largest and oldest of the gardens in Wickham Park. Within its eight acres are several oriental structures and statues. The most identifiable are the Torri Archway, the fu-dogs, the Arched Moon Bridge over the pond, and the Teahouse. The Teahouse can be used by small groups in cases of inclement weather. This garden can accommodate weddings of up to 150 people when using the open field space in the north end of the garden, where an oriental pagoda has been created.

The Italian Shrine

This garden was originally created by Clarence and Edith Wickham as a place for their workers to worship. The Shrine is an open structure with stucco pillars and a flagstone base, which is set on a grassy knoll enclosed by beautiful plantings. Statues of St. Theresa and St. Francis highlight this garden. This garden can accommodate a wedding of up to 125 people, and offers a formal setting perfect for your special occasion.

The Lotus Garden

This garden is located in the center of Wickham Park and contains a pond with a fountain and a pagoda. The pagoda is an oriental structure that provides a lovely setting overlooking the pond. Several stone Japanese lanterns also adorn this area. This garden can accommodate a wedding of up to 100 people, and makes a picturesque setting for wedding photos.

The Cabin Garden

Located at the highest point of the park, with a panoramic view of Hartford, the Cabin Garden provides a scenic and formal setting for any occasion. This garden can be reserved as part of a wedding package or in limited circumstances, the ceremony alone. This garden can accommodate up to 150 people. Please inquire about our Cabin Package for more details.

The Scottish Garden

Constructed in 2011 the Scottish Garden adjoins the north end of the English Garden. Containing statuary and plant materials with a Scottish influence this garden provides an intimate location for wedding photos.
